

LAGO VISTA, JONESTOWN, POINT VENTURE CITY GUIDE

▶ History & Overview

Nestled in the Texas Hill Country between Cedar Park and Marble Falls and just 20 miles northwest of Austin, Lago Vista, Jonestown and Point Venture offer residents the opportunity to live in a lakeside community with spectacular views, wildlife and serenity. The Lago Vista area was initially populated by various Native American Indian tribes and other sovereign nations. Stephen F. Austin began to send settlers to the area, and residents established commerce with the construction of the Lohman's Bridge to facilitate travel between the north and south shore of the Colorado River. Once the Mansfield Dam was constructed and Lake Travis created, more and more families came to call the area home. Today, Lago Vista, Jonestown and Point Venture are thriving communities.

▶ Education

The Lago Vista Independent School District serves students in Lago Vista, Point Venture and South Jonestown Hills. Lago Vista ISD is a K-12 school system. The city of Jonestown is served by both the Lago Vista and Leander ISDs. Leander ISD is comprised of 25 Elementary Schools, 8 Middle Schools, 6 High Schools and 2 Alternative Schools. Higher education opportunities can be found at The University of Texas at Austin, St. Edwards University, Concordia University and Austin Community College Campuses.

▶ Major Business

The business communities include medical facilities, corporate manufacturing, financial advisors, retail shopping, restaurants and service providers.

▶ Arts & Culture

There are several art groups performing Broadway hits and classical musicals locally. Residents can enjoy the Twilight Concert Series, Lake Travis Music Theater as well as the Rising Stars Youth Group, Lago Vista Players and Hill Country Singers. Lago Vista is a certified as a Film Friendly city, making it a beautiful backdrop for filming opportunities.

▶ Neighborhoods

The phrase "Live Like You're on Vacation" perfectly sums up these areas. Originally founded as a golf resort community, Lago Vista is located at the peninsula of Lake Travis and offers residents the opportunity to live in large, expensive homes. Surrounded by Lake Travis to the west and east, the boundaries for the neighborhood are the Travis County Line, RM 1431 and Boggy Ford. The definition of resort style living, Jonestown is situated next to Lago Vista. Point Venture is a gated community on the north bank of Lake Travis with the slogan "Where Everyday is a Holiday".
