

PFLUGERVILLE CITY GUIDE

▶ History & Overview

Located approximately 15 miles from downtown Austin, Pflugerville was named after Henry Pfluger who arrived from Germany upon escaping the Russian War in 1849. The city has seen explosive growth over the past several years and continues to rank among the fastest growing cities in the U.S.

▶ Education

Pflugerville ISD serves over 25,000 students and values diversity and academic excellence. With 28 nearby colleges and universities, Pflugerville offers several higher education opportunities for residents.

▶ Major Business Industries

The city offers a skilled workforce and easy access to major markets and transportation. The major business industries include retail, accommodation and food services, healthcare and social services and construction. Community Impact Newspaper, LifeLast, Sisu Devices and Thin-nology represent some of the largest employers.

▶ Arts & Culture

Residents and visitors can enjoy a cultural experience at the Pflugerville Arts Center and the Public Art Gallery. Being so close to Austin, they can also take a short trip to enjoy the live music scene in Austin and all the other cultural events Austin has to offer.

▶ Dining

Residents can enjoy a variety of dining options in Pflugerville including Taste of Ethiopia, Café 1 by Chef Juan, Brotherton's Black Iron Barbecue, FD's Grillhouse, El Ricon and Iron Fish.

Photo courtesy of facebook.com/PfunTX

PFLUGERVILLE

CITY GUIDE

▶ Wineries, Breweries, & Pubs

If you like hand-crafted beer, Texas wine and a place where you can hang with family and friends, then you must stop by Pflugerville's Growler Kitchen & Bar, Three-Legged Goat and Spirit of Texas Distillery and Brewery.

▶ Parks & Outdoors

The city offers residents a multitude of fitness opportunities. There are 44 miles of hike and bike trails, community pools, and of course the 180-acre recreational Lake Pflugerville. Residents can hike, bike, fish, swim and kayak. A few of the parks and outdoor amenities include Northeast Metropolitan Park, Lake Pflugerville, Gilleland Creek Park, Bohls Park, 1849 Park, Falcon Pointe Splash Park and Typhoon Texas.

▶ Festivals

Pflugerville residents enjoy celebrating their heritage with music, arts and crafts and good food. Celebrations include Pfall Phest Craft Show, Pfall Chili Pfest, Pfarmers Market, Pfine Art Pfest, Pfreeze Pflop and Deutshen Pfest.

▶ Neighborhoods

Money Magazine named Pflugerville the 12th Best Place to Live in America. Situated just outside Austin and Round Rock, Pflugerville offers homebuyers more affordable housing options. With accessible transportation routes on IH-35, SH45, SH130 and SH45, the city provides residents the opportunity to live in more affordable housing while commuting to Austin and Round Rock to work. Some the subdivisions are Cambridge Estates, Lakes at Northtown, Highland Park North, Brookfield Estates and Villages of Hidden Lakes.

Photo courtesy of facebook.com/PflunTX

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT
pfchamber.com